

STROMA FILMS

Crafted films, compelling narratives

About STROMA Films

- A video production company based in Edinburgh.
- Led by filmmakers Douglas Walker and Brian Ross.
- Began life as Rapid Visual Media in 2007.
- As directors, writers and producers with 35 years collective experience, we've never stopped being inspired by the people we work with.
- We make films about artists, designers, musicians and makers.
- We make films about architecture, community and cultural heritage.

Portfolio

- Our short films can be found on vimeo - <https://vimeo.com/stromafilms>
- All our promotional videos feature fascinating, clever, artistic people who want to tell their story.

St Mary's Music School

- We were asked to produce a film documenting the once in a generation purchase of a Steinway Model B piano by St Mary's Music School in Edinburgh.
- Filming between the Steinway Factory in Hamburg and St Mary's Music School in Edinburgh, we follow concert pianist Steven Osborne on the selection process.

What is V&A Dundee?

- Ahead of the opening of the V&A Museum of Design in Dundee, we worked with the team at V&A Dundee to document a variety of projects that are helping put the new design museum on the map.

Meet Max

- The Scottish Chamber Orchestra asked us to create a profile film to introduce their new principal conductor, Maxim Emelyanychev.
- Watch him as he prepares for his debut performance of Haydn's The Seasons at the Usher Hall in Edinburgh.
